MILITARY CENSORSHIP MORE RIGID THAN EVER.

NO NEWS FROM GEN. BULLER

HIS SUCCESS OR DEFEAT TO BE FIRST REPORT

NOTHING FROM THE MODDER

SOME LONG RANGE SHELLING IS REPORTED.

London, Jan. 16, 1900.—2:50 p. m., The complete absence of news from Natal up to this hour proves that the censorship will allow nothing to pass until General Buller's plans are executed or have failed. Even General Roberts, in his report of yesterday evening, refrained from mentioning a word about Natal or General Buller.

From the other columns there is little news of moment. Modder river advices of yesterday's date only report long range shelling from which the Boers are supposed to have suffered severely. A despatch from Sterkstroom, dated Monday, January 15, report that General Gatacre's troops had made a demonstration beyond Moltino. The Burghers were not sighted and the British remained at Molteno. Arrivals from Stormberg estimate that there are 4,500 Boers at that place, mostly revolted colonists and free staters.

General French continues to shell the Boer positions, but nothing decisive has taken place.

BOERS REPULSED.

Rensburg, Cape Colony, Monday, Jan. 15.—The Boers this morning attempted to rush a hill held by a company of the Yorkshires and the New Zealanders, but they were repulsed at the point of the bayonet. The Boers had twenty-one men killed and about fifty wounded.

FORT TAKEN AT MAFEKING.

Pretoria, Saturday, Jan. 13.—As a result of the bombardment of Mafeking yesterday the British fort at Eastward was demolished and the British retired. One Boer was wounded.

Advices from the head laager at Ladysmith report that attack on that place January 6 was disastrous to the British and that Ladysmith appears to be in sore straits.

AN EXPERT'S VIEW.

New York, Jan. 16.—A despatch to the World from London says:

Mr. Williams, the war expert of the Morning Leader, writing for this morning's paper with the best information obtainable, says this regarding the report that General Warren had crossed the Tugela river:

"General Warren, with his division and something more, was yesterday five miles to the northwest of Springfield, where General Buller then had his headquarters. Consequently the censor at Durban had been having a little amusement with the local press for the purpose of deceiving any spies the enemy may have and then confusing them.

"All the inferences drawn from any telegrams which have so far reached us must be erroneous. Once and for all Buller's movement is by the left. There he has his strength.

"His plan is to turn the heights north and northwest of Colenso and thus compel their evacuation, and then to attack any Boers left between him and General White and make connection with General White's forces.

"After that he may keep the Transvaalers on the run through Natal to Laings Nek or Charlestown; or he may decide on separating the Free Staters from the strong men of war and make with his main force for Harrismith and Bloemfontein.

"News of the first success of these operations should reach us about Wednesday or Thursday.

"All that can be said actually is that General Buller up to yesterday was still at Springfield. General Warren was on a hill nearly midway between Springfield and Bethany, and General Buller had assuredly one, and it is thought two passages of the river on his hands.

"General Buller can spare a sufficient number of irregulars to send a flying column of them into Zululand, nominally to check the Boer cattle raiders, but really to work around the extreme eastern flank and head, Utrecht and Vryheid districts, unless they can cut in on the Transvaal communications and find themselves at or near the Ladysmith and New Castle railway."

The attacks on the war office and the information bureau have been renewed in several quarters. It is declared here that when Winston Churchill first arrived in Natal he had maps of the northern portion of the colony, procured from English sources, which were better than any possessed by the generals there and he loaned them to the commanders. The newspapers now say that experts in the war office have been operating with a larger scale map of North Natal, printed upon seventy sheets, which was borrowed from the German war department after the situation about Glencoe and Ladysmith became chilicat.

PETITION FOR PROTECTION

COLORED PEOPLE ASK FOR ANTI-LYNCH LAWS.

Senator Cullom Presents the Petition to the Senate—Philippine Question Again Up.

Washington, Jan. 16.—With the opening of today's session of the senate Mr. Cullom (Ill.) presented a petition handsomely bound and signed by 3,200 colored persons asking for such legislation as will protect colored men of this country from the "barbarous practice of lynching and burning colored men."

Mr. Hoar, chairman of the committee on judiciary, said he believed every senator would be glad to have such measures adopted as would suppress this wrong-doing. There followed a discussion during which Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshire, said there was no power in congress to pass laws to punish crimes committed in the various states.

The senate went into executive session at 1:10 to permit Senator Davis, of Minnesota, to speak without embarrassment concerning the work of the Paris peace commission. He moved to lay the Pettigrew resolution calling on the president for information regarding the commission on the table. But the point was raised by Mr. Hoar and sustained by the president pro tem., Mr. Frye, that such a motion could not be properly made or debated in secret session. The doors were then opened to permit the proper making of the motion, which prevailed, 41 to 20.

THE HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Immediately after the reading of the journal the house today went into a committee of the whole and took up the consideration of the urgent deficiency appropriation bill.

SCHOOLSHIP SAILS.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 16.—The famous old battle-scarred frigate Saratoga, now the schoolship of the Pennsylvania Nautical school, today left here on her annual winter cruise in the West Indies. Seventy boys, of whom twenty-five are new recruits, will make the voyage. The frigate is commanded by Commander William J. Barnette, under whom are Lieutenants A. T. Long and C. S. Stearns. A new assignment to the schoolship is Ensign Gherardi, a son of Admiral Gherardi. The present cruise is the Saratoga's twenty-first as a schoolship. From the Delaware breakwater she will proceed direct to Trinidad and in succession will touch at Martinique, St. Thomas and San Juan, remaining a few days in each port. The Saratoga will then be headed homeward, arriving here about April 10.

FOR CONGRESS.

Indianapolis Press: "Republican politics in the Twelfth district are beginning to attract some attention in that part of the state. Among those that are believed to be candidates for congress are Dr. Stemen, who made the race two years ago; Robert Hanna, of Fort Wayne, and Robert P. Barr, of Kendallville."

NOT THE SOLE SURVIVOR.

New York, Jan. 16.—Lieutenant Howard, who has just died in Washington, and who was pilot of the Monitor during her brief but famous career, was not the sole survivor of the company of the vessel of war. There is still in the active service of the revenue marine a former officer of higher rank than Lieutenant Howard, Capt. Louis N. Stodder, of the revenue cutter service, who was master's mate of the Monitor when she sank, off Hatteras, on the night of December 31, 1862. He is now in command of the anchorage service in New York harbor.

IS LAID TO REST.

THE MORTAL FORM OF BISHOP RADEMACHER ENTOMBED.

SERVICES MOST IMPRESSIVE

PONTIFICAL HIGH MASS BY ARCHBISHOP ELDER.

BISHOP HORSTMANN'S SERMON

A LOVING TRIBUTE TO THE DEPARTED PRELATE.

All that is mortal of Rt. Rev. Joseph Rademacher, the loved bishop of the diocese of Fort Wayne, has been placed in its final resting place beneath the altar of the Cathedral, where the bishop so often held devotions. The funeral services for the dead bishop this morning were among the most impressive ever held in this city, and the deep solemnity of every surrounding and the sublime grandeur of the funeral service of the Catholic church combined to make an occasion that will never fade from the memory of those present.

The services began at 9 o'clock, but long before that hour the Cathedral was packed to the doors. A force of ushers composed of Messrs. A. C. Aurentz, Joseph Dolan, John Woulfe and T. C. Dodane assisted in seating the vast audience, and later the aisles were completely filled by those unable to gain seats. Inside the Cathedral was festooned in the deep insignia of mourning. The body of the dead bishop reposed upon a heavily draped catafalque at the head of the center aisle and just in front of the altar. Around the bier lighted candles were glowing, and a guard of honor made up of uniformed Catholic Knights stood on either side of the casket.

The dead bishop was attired in the vestments of the holy office he filled in life. His form was sadly wasted by disease and suffering of the past year, but the features bore a look of peaceful repose. Fifty pews at either side of the main aisle had been reserved for the clergy and relatives of Bishop Rademacher, and a few minutes after 9 o'clock the clergy filed into the Cathedral from the sacristry. The officers who were to assist in the funeral services took their places inside the chancel, while the remaining clergy passed down the aisle in two columns past the casket and took the pews reserved for them.

Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati, and Archbishop Katzer, of Milwaukee, wore the amice, alb and cincture of white, tunic of purple silk, dalmatic of purple, while Archbishop Elder wore in addition the chasuble of black. All the bishops wore vestments similar to those of the archbishops, except for the cape of black. The priests were attired in white surplices, and during the Gospel each held a lighted candle. These were extinguished after the Gospel, and relighted again at the Sanctus.

The service began with the solemn office of the dead, the liturgical prayers for the repose of the soul. Very Rev. L. A. Moench, of Valparaiso, presided at this office, and the chanters were Very Rev. H. Boehner, C. P. P. S., president of Rensselaer college; Rev. C. A. Thiele, of Whiting, and Rev. Charles Dhe, of Hartford City. The service of the matins was deeply impressive. The lessons were sung by the bishops, the nocturcs chanted by the assembled clergy, and the antiphons intoned by the chanters. The Lauds, composed of various songs from the Scriptures, were intoned by the chanters and sung by the clergy, the splendid chorus of voices lending to the impressive service.

PONTIFICAL HIGH MASS.

The venerable Archbishop Elder, of the archdiocese of Cincinnati, was the celebrant of the pontifical requiem high mass, one of the most impressive offices in the liturgy of the Catholic church. It is only celebrated by a bishop or an archbishop, and no service is more affecting in its sublime simplicity than this exalted service. Assisting the archbishop were Very Rev. J. H. Guendling, V. G., as assistant priest, Rev. John Bleckmann as deacon of the mass, Rev. J. H. Bathe as sub-deacon of the mass, Rev. J. Guendling and Rev. J. F. Delaney as assistant deacons, Rev. W. J. Quinlan, Rev. C. B. Guendling and Rev. John Durham as masters of ceremonies, Rev. P. J. O'Reiley and Rev. F. X. LeBoutc as acolytes, Rev. John Noll as bookbearer, Rev. P. J. Crawley as candlebearer, Rev. F. Fontaine as mitrebearer, Rev. Thomas Mungovan as censer-bearer, and Rev. F. C. Keller as gremiale.

BISHOP HORSTMAN'S TRIBUTE.

Rt. Rev. Ignatius Horstmann, D. D., bishop of Cleveland, delivered the funeral discourse. It was a brief but touching tribute to the greatness and exemplary qualities of Bishop Rademacher. The open casket just below the pulpit on which Bishop Horstmann spoke seemed to appeal deeply to the bishop as he spoke, and his emotion was plainly evident.

Bishop Horstmann chose his text from the first chapter of St. Luke's gospel; the words as follows: "My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God, my Savior. He that is highty hath done great things for me, and Holy is his name."

In opening the bishop said: "We were in the midst of joyful, happy Christmas time. We were singing glory to God on high and on earth peace and goodwill to men. We have seen the magii coming from the east to Bethlehem. We have entered with them and found the Child with Mary, the mother. In the midst of these joyful celebrations the angel of death calls your leader, your shepherd, to his peace and to his reward. For him death was a happy release. For him it could have no terrors. At its call he was ready to answer, 'present.' He has already given an account of his stewardship. I received the sad news in Philadelphia. I hurried home and there was a letter telling me of his last hours. In my soul I spoke to God—His mercy is from generation to generation. He has received Israel his servant.

"From the time he was stricken down I had one prayer—Lord, give him his mind, that he might enter the kingdom as he would wish. God granted that prayer as He does the prayers of those who love Him. Praise be to God." The bishop referred to the death of a sister who was recently found when life had expired, the crucifix pressed to her heart with both hands, showing her last prayer to have been "Jesus have mercy on me.' That was a beautiful death and beautiful is the death of all who cling steadfastly to the faith of Jesus.

"Death is always terrible, because after it comes the judgment. Death is always sad, for it means the separation of links which have bound us to the happiness of the years. We, his brethren of the bishopric, will miss him; we will miss his wise counsels, his gentle and affable companionship, and his unfaltering devotion. You, priests of the diocese of Fort Wayne, will miss him, and you must always remember him as your father and your best friend. A man of real piety, of zeal, of self-sacrifice and devotion to his duty and his work; a man who realized his duty and always endeavored to follow it.

"We are surrounded by mystery, and the greatest of mysteries is human life. So also is its companion—death. When a little more than a year ago the news came to us that your bishop was stricken, it came like a flash from the clear sky. At the meeting of bishops in 1893 had I been asked to say who would be the first to be called by death I should have unhesitatingly said, "Myself." Had I been asked who would be the last, I should have answered, "Bishop Rademacher." He was then the type of physical health. But what a change; how sorrowful to him has been this last year. Take admonition and seek ye the Lord while He may be found.

"Whatsoever God does He does for the best for those who love Him. Why, then, shall we weep? Mourn not as those who have no hope. The Lord is the Christian's rock of hope and of triumph. Stand steadfast and immovable, abounding in the work of God."

Gazing down on the lifeless form before him, Bishop Horstmann said:

"It is not fitting that I, in the presence of that venerated body, should speak of his life and works. That should be done by one who knew him better, and I know that could he speak he would forbid it and ask rather for a prayer. There is one great lesson of death; it is not

LEONARD - KEEGAN

WILL LEAD G. O. P. IN DISTRICT AND COUNTY.

KEEGAN TAKES CHAIRMANSHIP

ELMER LEONARD A MEMBER OF STATE COMMITTEE.

C. B. OAKLEY IS SECRETARY

H. W. SKELTON TREASURER OF COUNTY COMMITTEE.

The republicans of the Twelfth congressional district met in the City hall this afternoon and elected Elmer Leonard, of this city, to succeed Judge Vesey as a member of the republican state central committee.

When Judge Vesey called the convention to order at 1:15 the hall was fairly well filled with delegates and representative republicans of the district. Judge Vesey made a neat speech, thanking the republicans for the support given him during the last four years and predicting success in the campaign about to begin. He called for nominations for chairman of the convention, and C. C. Gillen, auditor of Lagrange county, was elected by acclamation. E. C. Rose, editor of the Angola Magnet, was elected secretary, and John T. Dougall, of the Fort Wayne News, assistant secretary. A motion to appoint a committee on resolutions composed of one delegate from each county was carried and Chairman Gillen named the following gentlemen: Sol A. Wood, Steuben county; Allen Hartzell, Allen; Judge F. S. Roby, DeKalb; W. H. Kissinger, Whitley; L. W. Welker, Noble; J. N. Babcock, Lagrange. The committee left the convention to read over the resolutions which had, of course, been already prepared, and while they were discussing the resolutions the committee proceeded to elect the state committeeman. Hon. E. G. Melendy, of Angola, placed in nomination the name of Elmer Leonard and there were seconds from all parts of the convention hall. A motion to make Mr. Leonards election unanimous carried with a whirl, and he was called upon for a speech. He thanked the republicans for the honor, asked for their support in the work he had to perform and admonished republicans to get together and work in harmony, thus making certain success in the Hoosier state. Mr. Leonard even said that he believed the republicans were going to make gains in rock-ribbed democratic Allen county.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

While he was speaking the committee on resolutions returned to the room and at the conclusion of Mr. Leonard's address submitted the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The resolutions as reported and adopted are as follows:

"The year has again rolled around and now is here when the republican party must give an accounting to the people. The republican party rejoices at the opportunity to render a report of faithful stewardship, conscious of duty fully performed, and pointing to the fruits of politics so beneficial that none may deny. It points to promises kept, restoring the country and the people to a state of prosperity, both to business and labor interests never surpassed and rarely, if ever, equalled; it recalls that 'the advance agent of prosperity'—our great president, William McKinley—knew whereof he spoke when he advocated laws for the opening of the mills instead of the mints; it declares that this grand ground swell of good times is due to the principles of sound money and industrial protection, for which the party has always effectively fought and labored. The republican party further points with pride to the successful management of the war with Spain, which was forced upon the American people both by irrepressible motives of humanity and the natural motives of self defense. The republican party has administered the affairs of government along the lines of honesty and economy and with loyal and patriotic devotion to the flag. It has no apologies to make, and both in nation and in state, has no doubt that it will receive the vote of confidence which its record has earned for it at the bar of the sovereign people of America. Therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we, as representatives of the republican party of the Twelfth congressional district of Indiana, in convention assembled, do hereby formally and earnestly endorse the administration of President McKinley and his official cabinet; we endorse the course of the republican congress, especially the action of the lower house, in passing the financial bill destroying the endless chain, and we urge that the senate give short shrift to opposition and make the bill a law; we commend both congress and the president in their wise and patriotic management of the recent war, and we place ourselves clearly on record for the retention of our new island possessions and against any proposition to haul down the American flag; we endorse the tariff legislation of the party, and condemn the democratic party for repealing the McKinley tariff law, which contained a clause which, except for democratic hostility, would have been effective against trusts and other hurtful combinations of capital; we endorse the administration of our state affairs by the legislators and officers elected by the republican party.

"We particularly endorse the course of Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge and rejoice in the wisdom of the people in choosing both senators from the great party of constructive and yet conservative statesmanship—the statesmanship of Lincoln, Grant, Harrison and McKinley, which availed not only to save the union from dissolution, but loyally kept the promise to care for the veteran in his disability or old age, and his widow and orphan; a statesmanship which has given to immortality some of its greatest names and which has given American liberty and American civilization a firmer foundation with every year of its power. It is with this record and these principles that the republican party enters the campaign of 1900 and challenges the exponents of incompetence and negation in government to enter the lists."

After the adoption of the resolutions short speeches were made by Robert B. Hanna, of this city, prospective candidate for the republican nomination for congress, Dr. C. B. Stemen, who made the race against Hon. James M. Robinson two years ago, Senator Newton W. Gilbert, of Angola, and others. All of the speakers were enthusiastic in their belief that republican success was assured this year with a united party supporting William McKinley for re-election to the presidency. The convention adjourned after being in session only little more than one hour.

THE COUNTY COMMITTEE.

The newly elected republican county committeemen met in the roms on the fourth floor of the Bass block this morning and perfected an organization for the coming campaign. There was an unusually large attendance for an Allen county republican committee and considerable enthusiasm was displayed. The usual friction was missing and there was general unanimity in the action taken. Elmer Leonard called the committee to order and B. W. Skelton was elected temporary chairman. Hugh G. Keegan had declined to be a candidate for the chairmanship, but there was an almost unanimous expression of sentiment that he should accept. Even after the committee had met he persisted in his declination and the name of C. S. Bash was suggested without that gentleman's consent. A ballot was taken and more than a majority of the committeemen had voted for Mr. Keegan. He was importuned to accept and finally consented. The committee then proceeded to complete its organization and when adjournment was taken the committee had been officered as follows:

Chairman—Hugh G. Keegan.
Vice-Chairman—G. E. Bursley.
Secretary—Ex-Mayor C. B. Oakley.
Treasurer—Benjamin W. Skelton.

Chairman Keegan has two committees to appoint—the executive and finance committees—and he stated to a Sentinel reporter that his selections for these committees would be made next week.

The following are the republican county committeemen not reported in Monday's Sentinel:

Aboite—W. J. Esterline.
Eel River—N. F. Bennett.
Jackson—J. A. Collett.
Jefferson—Caleb S. Townsend.
Lafayette—G. W. Diffenderfer.
Lake—John D. Archer.
Madison—William Hockemeyer.
Marion—Simon Somers.
Milan—Jonathan Bieber.
Pleasant—John Corson.
Springfield—John Brown.
Scipio—John F. Johnson.
St. Joe—Frederick Griebel.

The county committee headquarters will be maintained in the Bass block for the present and the new secretary will be in charge from now until after the election in November. It is probable that after a few months another room on the ground floor of some building will be rented and active campaign work waged.

AIM WAS DEADLY.

EX-CONGRESSMAN COLSON IN MURDEROUS MOOD.

MURDERS TWO, WOUNDS ONE

TRAGEDY IN HOTEL LOBBY AT FRANKFORT, KY.

GREW OUT OF A RECENT FEUD

COLSON ONCE SHOT BY ONE OF TODAY'S VICTIMS.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 16.—Ex-Congressman David G. Colson shot and killed Ethelbert Scott and Luther Demaree and slightly wounded James Golden, in the Capitol hotel today. The killing was the result of a renewal of a feud between Colson and Scott, which grew up between them while in the army last year. Demaree and Golden were by-standers and were shot by accident. Colson was shot in the arm, but not seriously hurt. After the shooting he went to the residence of Chief of Police Williams, nearby, and gave himself up. Later a warrant was sworn out by Clint Fogg, who witnessed the killing. Fogg says Colson shot first.

The killing occurred in the lobby of the Capitol hotel, which was densely packed with people who are here attending the trial of the contests before the legislature. In addition to Scott and Demaree, who died almost instantly, and Golden, Charles Julian, of Frankfort, and Harry McEwing, of Louisville, were hit by stray bullets, but were not seriously wounded. Persons who were in the hotel when the tragedy occurred say fully twenty shots were fired.

Scott, who was the first killed, was a nephew of ex-Governor Bradley. Demaree was assistant postmaster at Shelbyville and a prominent republican politician.

The trouble between Scott and Colson, which began in the army last year, resulted in Colson being shot by Scott and it has been predicted since one or both would be killed should they meet as they did today. Colson is under arrest.

GAS AND OIL SEPARATOR.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 15.—The news that a separator of gas and oil has been put into practical use near Alexandria and that eighteen shutdown oil wells are being operated has aroused interest in Delaware county. In the northwestern part of the county, in the vicinity of Gaston, there is a large number of oil wells that have been unable to be operated for more than two years because of the decision of the supreme court, which held that oil can not be taken from gas wells while gas is allowed to escape. The whole northwestern part of the county is plugged with wells that have been waiting the decision of the United States supreme court on the constitutionality of the law and the invention of a gas and oil separator. If the separator is a success it will mean the opening up of a new industry for the county.

WANT REFORMS.

New York, Jan. 16.—Among the passengers who arrived today by the steamer Philadelphia from Ponce and San Juan, Porto Rico, were members of a delegation of Puerto Rican merchants and citizens en route for Washington to consult with President McKinley and present to congress the needs of the island of Porto Rico. The delegates are strongly in favor of the island being made a territory of the United States. They also favor a modification of tariff laws and other reforms.

LIVE STOCK MEN MEET.

Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 16.—The third annual convention of the National Live Stock association of the United States began here today with a good attendance of delegates. After several addresses of welcome, the annual address of the president was delivered by J. W. Springer.

STEAMER IS WRECKED.

Gallipolis, Ohio, Jan. 16.—The fine passenger steamer Lexington, owned by the Carr line, of Charleston, W. Va., while racing with the opposition packet Argand, struck the lock wall near Scary, breaking in twain and sinking immediately. The Argand went to the rescue and took off the passengers and crew. The steamer will probably be a total wreck.

Poisoned by Grip.

It is an awful thing to feel that the blood which is intended to feed, build up and strengthen your nerves, brain, muscles, bones and sinews, is polluted with a subtle and deadly poison which is sapping your life blood and robbing you of your health and strength. LaGrippe fills your system with millions of poison-breeding microbes, which must be overcome and driven out or death will claim you for his own. Dr. Miles' Nervine is the only safe and sure relief for the many forms of nervous disorders which are the result of grip's poisoning. It strengthens the nerves, invigorates the digestive organs and drives the poisonous grip germs out of the system.

"Three years ago the grip left me very much run down, and I suffered from extreme nervousness, loss of appetite and inability to sleep. I employed good physicians but to no avail. I learned of Dr. Miles' Nervine and when I had used one-half of a bottle my appetite returned and I could sleep soundly at night. I continued taking the remedy and to gain in strength until I had used five bottles, when my nervousness was entirely removed and I felt greatly improved in many ways."

Mrs. GALEN HUMPHREY,
Wareham, Mass.

"LaGrippe settled in my back, and for four months I was unable to leave my bed. I became so nervous that I could not sleep or rest day or night. Receiving no help from physicians I began using Dr. Miles' Nervine, and the first night I enjoyed a peaceful sleep. From that time I grew better until my health was recovered." W. O. MATHEWS,

NESTEL TRIAL IS ON AGAIN

ONE WITNESS ON STAND THE ENTIRE FORENOON.

New Cases of Minor Importance Have Been Filed—Court News of Interest.

The trial of the Nestel will case was resumed in the superior court this morning, with Judge Vesey on the bench and the big array of legal talent pressing the claims of their clients. William Gerke, who was on the stand when adjournment was taken Saturday, was recalled and he was still being examined when court adjourned at noon. The witness' testimony was submitted to prove the unsoundness of Daniel Nestel's mind.

AGAINST MR. EVANS.

In the United States court at Indianapolis Monday Judge Baker made an important decision in the case of John F. Evans against J. L. Gruber, Frederick W. Antrup, Hiram Porter, George Linden, Joseph Harding and Jackson Valentine, directors of the J. F. Schell Loan and Investment company. Mr. Evans was desirous that these gentlemen be declared bankrupts, but Judge Baker decided that they were not amenable to the bankrupt laws. They were merely sureties for the Investment and Loan company and the law did not contemplate reaching sureties engaged in farming and other occupations. This decision upholds the finding of Judge Chapin made two or three months ago. Judge Baker besides finding for the defendants free from liability assessed the costs on Mr. Evans and others. The costs will reach about $500. At one time the directors offered to settle at 50 cents on the dollar, but the offe. was declined by the three persons who commenced bankruptcy proceedings. Hon. T. E. Ellison appeared for Evans and the complainants and Robertson & O'Rourke, Judge L. M.Ninde and J. B. Harper represented the defendants.

IS LAID TO REST.

new; it is the same old story, as old as history. There is no preacher like death. When he beckons with his long bony finger we must go with him. Today for me; tomorrow, for thee. The one great lesson of death is to teach us all to be ready. The courier of old said: 'I have a message for you—this year you shall surely die.'

"Here, bishops, priests and faithful laity are gathered to show reverence for the departed one. Who will be the next? Many of us will be in eternity before another year. Let us all take the lesson—be ye ready. Let the lamp of your soul be filled with the oil of God's grace, and let it be trimmed and burning. May Jesus in His mercy grant us all grace."

Turning again to the casket, the bishop continued: "Now, my brother and friend, I answer the mute appeal you make to me from the coffin-to speak to those you loved and for whom you were willing to lay down your life. We, your brothers, will not forget you. We will remember you at the altar. You, priests of his diocese, remember him now in his great need. You of the laity, show your appreciation of his work and devotion by your prayers that his soul may rest in peace and that the eternal light may shine upon him. Child-like confidence and devotion were deep traits of his character. Remember our accountability to God, greater in priest than in laity, greater in bishop than in priest.

"Farewell, then, my dear brother and friend. I will not say forever, but rather "auf wiedersehn"—farewell until we meet again in that abode where God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes. Blessed Jesus, hear my prayer—have mercy on him; may he rest in peace."

THE CLOSING PRAYERS.

Following Bishop Horstman's sermon came the service of absolution for the dead. On the platform about the casket were gathered Archbishop Katzer, of Milwaukee; Bishop Richter, of Grand Rapids; Bishop Rhee, of Covington, Ky.; Bishop Byrne, of Nashville, with Archbishop Elder at the head of the casket. The ritualistic prayers and psalms were intoned by the chanters, and each bishop in turn passed around the casket, sprinkled the remains with holy water and incensed them, and Archbishop Elder said the final prayers for the dead.

Then began the solemn march to the vault where the remains were to repose. The procession passed down the central aisle, headed by a guard of honor composed of six knights. Then followed the cross-bearer, two acolytes, the honorary pall-bearers of the clergy, Revs. B. Koreger, Aug. Oechtering, V. Raskievicez, J. B. Dinnen, B. Wiedau, H. Meissner, D. Duehmig, John Oechtering, J. Heitmann, H. Wilkins, H. Boeckelmann and L. Gottbehnede, O. F. M.

Next were the honorary pall-bearers from the laity, Messrs. Edward Gilmartin, A. L. Dodane, Patrick Ryan, P. H. Kane, Joseph Romary, Killian Baker, Dennis McCarthy, J. T. Callahan, John Sulzer, S. Aurentz, A. Kalbacher, James Conroy.

The incense-bearer, the mitre-bearer, the assistant deacons, the deacon of the mass, the assistant priests and Archbishop Elder, followed by the active pall-bearers bearing the casket. The pall-bearers were Hon. W. P. Breen, R. W. T. DeWald, J. M. Dinnen, Dr. E. J. McOscar, Louis Fox, P. J. McDonald, John B. Reuss, Henry C. Berghoff.

TO THE TOMB.

The clergy bearing lighted candles followed, singing the benedictus, the procession moving out at the north side of the Cathedral and passing into the vault room beneath the altar. Only a small part of the procession could be admitted there, owing to lack of room, and the clergy returned to the Cathedral. At the vault Archbishop Elder recited the last prayers for the dead, sprinkled the remains with holy water, recited a Pater and Ave, and the casket was deposited in its last resting place. Workmen were present, and the tomb was immediately sealed, a white marble slab being placed across the front. The vault is to the north of that containing the remains of Bishop Luers.

THE MUSICAL SERVICE.

A magnificent choir of male voices, made up from the several Catholic choirs of the city, rendered the musical numbers of the service, under the direction of Prof. E. M. Noll. After the archbishop had vested at his throne and proceeded to the foot of the altar, the choir chanted the Introit, followed by the Kyrie, and before the Gospel the Dies Irae was sung. This was followed by the offertory number, and later by the Sanctus and the Benedictus.

CLERGY WHO CAME.

The assemblage of Catholic clergy is one of the largest that ever visited Fort Wayne. It represents almost every section of the country, and among them are many who have risen high in the religious circles. Among them are Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati, Archbishop Katzer, of Milwaukee, Bishop Horstmann, of Cleveland, Bishop Richter, of Grand Rapids, Bishop Byrne, of Nashville, Bishop Maes, of Covington, Bishop Foley, of Detroit, Bishop Chatard, of Indianapolis, Bishop Scannel, of Omaha, Bishop Janson, of Belleville, Very Rev. Father Zahm, of Notre Dame, Rev. Joseph Rainer, of Milwaukee, Rev. M. J. Dorney, of Chicago, Very Rev. Father O'Donoghue, V. G., of Indianapolis, Rt. Rev. Mgr. Bauer, of Fremont, Ohio; Rev. Daniel Mullane, of St. Louis, Rt. Rev. Ath. Smidt, O. S. B., abbott of St. Meinraud, Ind., Rt. Rev. Abbott Leander, O. S. B., of St. Vincent, Pa., Very Rev. Boniface Russ, C. P. P. S., of Carthagena, Ohio, and a number of other mitred abbots representing the several orders, as well as nearly every priest of the Fort Wayne diocese.

The total attendance of the clergy numbered perhaps 200. Archbishop Elder and Archbishop Katzer were entertained at the episcopal residence. A few of the clergy were guests at the homes of acquaintances and the remainder were assigned to the several hotels of the city. Many of the visiting clergy left this afternoon for their homes.

BIG TRADE WITH THE EAST.

San Francisco, Jan. 16.—Charles L. Wagoner, of Pittsburg, who is largely interested in iron and steel shipments from this city, says in an interview: "Overland shipments via this port to China, Japan and Siberia are monopolizing all the available ship room. Immense supplies for the Eastern Chinese railway and other branches of the great trans-Siberian road have been forwarded from this country. These facts account somewhat for the jump in the prices of steel and iron, as the exports to the orient increased $500,000 for eleven months in 1898, to $1,700,000 for the same months of last year. There was an increase in the exports of nearly all classes of machinery, especially agricultural implements and scientific apparatus. The cotton cloth trade with China shows an increase of about $3,000,000 for the first eleven months of last year as compared with the same period of 1898."

A team of horses hitched to a Fort Wayne Drug company wagon took fright at a Nickel Plate train while standing in the rear of the Greatest Grocery, this morning. The animals dashed south on Harrison street to Wayne, where they turned, but were stopped before they had gone far. The driver of the team, who tried to stop them on Harrison street, was knocked down and considerably bruised and shaken up. No damage was done to the wagon.

A NEGRO HANGED.

Pittsburg, Jan. 16.—William Newman, a negro, was hanged in the yard of the county court house at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Death resulted from strangulation. The crime for which he was hanged was the murder of his mistress, Alice Warner, alias Van Horn, an inmate of a low negro resort on Grant street. The deed was the result of a quarrel over a colored jockey, named William Chinn, of whom Newman was jealous. The woman's body was claimed by an aunt in Rochester, N. Y.

What Is Dyspepsia?

A Diseased Condition of the Digestive Organs.

CAUSED BY THE GERMS.

These Must Be Destroyed Before a Cure Can Be Effected.

DOCTORING THE SYMPTOMS,

Which are Flatulency, Castritis, Sour Stomach, Indigestion and Nervousness,

AFFORDS ONLY TEMPORARY RELIEF.

That fully ninety-four per cent of the adult population of this country are suffering from dyspepsia in one form or another, shows that some grave mistake has been made in the treatments heretofore used for the cure of this disease, and medical science has of late proven this to be true. We do not fear contradiction when we say that up to ten months ago all remedies for dyspepsia were manufactured under the mistaken impression that food was digested in the stomach, and that flatulency, indigestion, gastritis, sour stomach, nervousness, etc., were diseases in themselves; when the truth of the matter is, food is not digested in the stomach at all, only prepared by this organ for digestion by the intestines; and all the disagreeable conditions enumerated above, only symptoms of the disease and not the disease itself. It is not surprising then that no progress has ever been made in curing dyspepsia or that the new remedy manufactured with the knowledge of just what causes the disease, should have been so wonderfully successful. Dyspepsia is a germ disease wholly. These germs in the stomach cause flatulency, gastritis, sour stomach, indigestion and nervousness. In the intestines, bloating, pain, diarrhoea, appendicitis, biliousness and constipation. So long as they remain there it is impossible to cure dyspepsia. Cathartics, pepsin, soda, liver pills, etc., may relieve the symptoms, but it is only for a short time, and then the disease returns with twofold vigor.

Hyomei Dyspepsia Cure

is unlike any other; containing the new germicide it goes at once to the seat of the disease and destroys the germs which cause it. Combined as it is with the best known remedies for the symptoms (each remedy being given separately), it affords instant relief and effects a permanent cure in a marvelously short time. In fact it is

THE BARBER'S ITCH.

Plymouth, Ind., Jan. 16.—A number of young women in the vicinity of Bourbon, six miles east of here, have the barber's itch. This disease has been quite prevalent in many of the northern Indiana towns this winter, but until now the weaker sex has escaped the contagion. The young folks has been having a great many social gatherings, where, it alleged, they swapped kisses somewhat promiscuously. All the elderly people of that vicinity, with girls of society age, have set their feet firmly against the "popular sociables," and that neighborhood is as tame as a churchyard. So far twelve cases of the barber's itch among young women have been reported.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

Be Careful in the Use of Cough Medicines for Children's Coughs and Colds.

Many analysis of cheap cough mixtures, and cough and throat lozenges have clearly proven that a large proportion of them contain opiates.

The temporary relief which these cheap medicines often give in coughs and colds, especially with little children, is because the opiate, by destroying nerve sensation, the irritation in throat, which causes the cough, is temporarily removed, but the real cause of the cold is not in any way removed by the opiate and will promptly return.

The best thing to use to remove the catarrhal secretion which causes the cold, the hoarseness and irritating cough is a new preparation composed of antiseptics like Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, which contain no opiate, cocaine or poisonous drug of any sort.

A mother living in Charleston, Mass., the happy possessor of four children, writes: "Every fall and winter I have laid in a stock of cough medicines, croup mixtures and throat remedies for my little children, for somehow or other, they never seemed to be free from colds, croup or sore throat.

This fall I made a change in the usual program. I had myself been cured of an obstinate catarrh, from which I had suffered for years, by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and as they were pleasant to take I determined to try them with my children. Our family physician told me he knew them to be perfectly safe and nothing better could be taken. So I gave them to the children and have continued to do so ever since, whenever there is the least sign of croup or sore throat and I no longer dread the approach of cold weather as I once did.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets not only cured me of chronic nasal and throat catarrh, but they have saved me many an anxious night with my little ones."

People who have used sprays, inhalers, salve and washes for catarrh and have found how useless they are, will be agreeably surprised at the results following the use of a pleasant internal remedy in tablet form. Druggists everywhere admit that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, which they sell at 50c per package, is the safest, most effective and popular of all catarrh remedies. 16-19

General Buller evidently intends to win another victory or get another drubbing without any interference from home.

According to the report of City Bacteriologist Drayer there has been notable progress in the efficacious treatment of diphtheria in Fort Wayne. During the year just closed the fatalities were 11.8 per cent. of the infections, whereas during the previous year the fatalities were 27 per cent. of the infections. Making reasonable allowance for a less malignant type of the disease, the showing is remarkable.

Uncle Paul Kruger's preparation for 30,000 more English prisoners in Pretoria affords the English no amusement whatever, and the funny papers, instead of being funny about it, are angry. There was a time when such preparation would have caused even the London Times and the Saturday Review to become humorous, but things have happened since then, and it is quite in order for the British public to hope that the preparation is complete enough to insure the prisoners all possible care and comforts.

The acquiescence of the Fort Wayne Traction company in the request for low rates of fare in Fort Wayne is a notable achievement for the Commercial club. Three and one-half cent fares morning and evening for the benefit of working men and women will be a boon to a very large class of toilers whose daily wage is not sufficient to afford them the privilege of covering the long distance between their homes and scenes of their employment. The concession will, we believe, result in an increase of patronage so large as to much more than offset the reduced fare. The four-cent fare granted for tickets purchased in lots will also greatly increase the revenues of the traction company. These concessions are substantial and will be appreciated.

President John P. Haines, in an address before the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, takes the ground that the killing of cats by teachers in the public schools for purposes of dissection should receive the most resolute discouragement, because, he says, "women who practice it get fond of it and women who are fond of cat killing are on the road to homicidal mania." President Haines thinks the effect of such work is also very bad on the children who witness it. Even those who feel that the industry of cat killing in large cities should in the interest of public and private peace and comfort be continued will be willing to admit that Mr. Haines' arguments have force.

Terry McGovern, the prize fighter, says his purse winnings since he entered the ring amount to $35,000, of which he still has over $25,000. He has provided a home for his mother and two brothers and purchased a house for himself and wife. He owns two saloons and some real estate in Brooklyn, and has an interest in the show of the "Gay Morning Glories." He expects to net $600 to $800 weekly from his theatrical engagements and to be worth more than $100,000 within the next couple of years, by which time he will be 23 years old. And this goes to prove that the youngster whom Dame Nature equipped with a prize-ring physique has the silver spoon in his mouth at birth. Biceps can discount brains as a capital any day.

The Italian government is politely insistent that the United States should secure the punishment of the men who lynched five Italians in Tallulah parish, Louisiana, last spring. Under present law, the matter is one of state concern alone. Although the federal government is by treaty responsible for the protection of foreigners, subjects of the other party, it has no legal means to maintain its promises and responsibilities, where offenses against such subjects are committed within the boundaries of any state. European governments complain that we demand the prompt punishment of persons who rob or injure American citizens in their countries, but at once disclaim liability and allege inability to enforce treaty rights within the United States. It is probable that the Italian correspondence may bring this matter to a focus. There are several hills before congress to give federal courts original jurisdiction in cases where treaty protection is claimed by or in behalf of an injured person, and some one of them is likely to pass. The present state of affairs is not only embarrassing, but dangerous.

President John W. Keller, of the department of charities at New York, must be credited with the admirable suggestion that a separate court be organized for the trial of juvenile offenders. In this way their isolation from confirmed criminals will be assured. Mr. Keller's experience as a newspaper reporter has fitted him for the important post he occupies. He understands clearly what the association of the young with old convicts means, and has taken a radical step in the right direction. The objection that is likely to be urged is the increased expense, but that can be readily avoided by giving the regular magistrates an additional hour each day in a separate court room. To begin with, children should not be locked up in station houses without the gravest provocation. Except in cases of homicide, their attendance before a magistrate can always be guaranteed by a parent or neighbor. In England, a summons is served on the parents of a child commanding its production in court, and the greatest care is taken not to send a willful boy or girl who is only willful to an institution where he or she will associate with criminals. Mr. Keller's idea ought to be tried at once in every city in this country.

Mrs. Harry Quicksell will entertain at cards on Wednesday afternoon.

TRANSPORTATIONS COMMITTEE MAKES ITS REPORT.

A practical demonstration of the good work that can be accomplished by the Fort Wayne Commercial club was made last evening when the club committee on railroads and transportation made its report. As a result of the efforts of this body the Fort Wayne Traction company, owners of the street railway, agree to give the working people a three and one-half cent ticket and the citizens a four-cent ticket, providing the tickets are purchased in quantities of 100 at a time; and the fare of three and a half cents is extended to women and girls who purchase tickets in quantities of fifty. Certain restrictions as to hours attach to the granting of the three and one-half cent fare.

The Commercial club had delegated to its committee the duty of presenting to the street railway company the petition asking for certain concessions, and while it did not secure all it desired, it was in the main successful, and the work of the club and the committee will be generally commended.

The company says it is unable to grant the request for stop-over privileges to passengers for Robison park, and the improved facilities asked for at Princess rink on the nights of entertainments is declared to be impossible under the single track facilities.

COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The report of the committee is here presented in full:

"Fort Wayne, Ind., Jan. 12, 1900. The Fort Wayne Commercial Club: Gentlemen—It is with pleasure and gratification that your committee on railroads and transportation finds itself in position to report favorably on the matter of lower street car fares as asked by this club, and by this committee addressed to the Fort Wayne Traction company, in a petition dated December 11th, 1899, and which petition is on your files and has been read in your hearing.

"In response to this petition, this committee, on invitation from Manager A. L. Scott, of the Traction company, had a conference with the gentleman named January 2, 1900. Our views on behalf of our people were clearly presented, patiently heard, and courteously received. Mr. Scott and his company have given us most thoughtful consideration, and in a most businesslike manner have clearly demonstrated to this committee that there are two sides to this very intricate matter. Without covering the many minor details unnecessary in this report, the substance of their reply and proposition to the four points of our petition are:

"1. A laboring man's or working man's ticket at $3.00 per 100, good between the hours of 6 and 7 a. m. and 5:50 and 6:30 p. m., cannot be conceded for lack of profit to the company, but the Fort Wayne Traction company is willing to issue a laborer's ticket book of 100 tickets, good during the hours named on all lines in the city, universal transfers, for $3.50, and a working woman's or working girl's ticket book of 50 tickets with same privileges for $1.75.

2. To meet the request for 125 tickets for $5.00, the Traction company, through its manager, Mr. Scott, will consent to issue a citizen's ticket book of 100 tickets, good all hours, universal transfers, for $4.00, good for holder or any member of family, or they will issue four ticket books of twenty-five tickets each for $4.00, same privileges, good for purchaser and designated members of family, all acceptable on the Robison park line.

"3. Manager Scott reports that this item of our original petition cannot in justice to them be endorsed. His company is at considerable expense during the summer season employing an excursion agent, advertising, etc., and they feel that the people brought here by their efforts are their patrons, on whom they justly have the first claim. They remind us that these excursionists are at liberty to return from the park to the city at will, for sight-seeing, shopping, etc., and that once in the city a single fare will take them to any one of the passenger stations; therefore, they have reason to believe, from careful observation, that no excursionist is kept from shopping in Fort Wayne who has the means and desire to do so.

"4. Mr. Scott recognizes the fourth request of our petition by stating that much as they would like to improve the service to and from Princess rink at times of great gatherings therein, they are powerless to do so, by reason of their restriction to single track facilities on West Main street, and he assures us that it is the desire and earnest hope of his company that the main cause of this complaint may be overcome in the near future.

"This, the report of your committee, covers in substance every point of our original petition. The Traction company, through its manager, has given us a most gentlemanly hearing, and we think fair and reasonable concesions. Manager Scott authorizes us to state to the Fort Wayne Commercial club that if these rates and concessions meet the unanimous approval of our organization, that he will order tickets printed at once to conform with the 3½ and 4-cent fares in the manner outlined in the first and second sections of this report, and that his company will promptly place same on sale as soon as they can be prepared, and in such a manner, and at such place or places as will make same easily obtainable by those entitled to them. Your committee heartily approves the Traction company's offer and recommends its immediate and unanimous acceptance with thanks.

"F. V. Culbertson,
"J. M. Landenberger,
"E. F. Yarnelle,
"M. C. MacDougall,
"Charles Falk,
"Railroads and Transportation Committee."

While the grants made by the company fall a little short of what was sought by the Commercial club, yet they are largely beneficial and were most cordially received. The report of the committee was accepted and endorsed without a dissenting vote, and the thanks of the club was voted to its committee, to Manager Scott and to the Fort Wayne Traction company for their interest in the matter. In accordance with the promise of Manager Scott the new fare tickets will be prepared and placed on sale as soon as possible.

After the disposal of the street car matter the club spent some time in discussing the matter of a union station, a county fair and the proposed exposition building, but no action was taken upon either of these propositions.

THE EFFICACY OF PRAYER

A WOMAN APPARENTLY DEAD REGAINS CONSCIOUSNESS.

Daughter Heard Her Crying, "Don't Let Them Bury Me Alive," and Her Prayer Prevailed.

English, Ind., Jan. 16.—A remarkable incident is reported at Doolittle's Mills, fifteen miles south of this city, in the experiences of Mrs. Ellen Crosby, an old woman, who fell on the ice on the 9d inst., and sustained such injuries that she was supposed to be beyond hope of recovery. After lying in an unconscious condition for nearly twenty-four hours, the result of concussion of the brain, she at last became partially conscious of what was going on about her. After a few hours, however, she became delirious from brain fever, and she continued in this condition for more than a week, when she apparently collapsed from sheer exhaustion. Her symptoms all pointed to the approach of death, and when, after three days, her body became cold, she was pronounced dead, and preparations for the burial were made. While this was in progress her daughter, a young woman of 19, worn out by exhaustion, laid down to rest, but her eyes had scarcely closed before she sprang up, exclaiming, "No, no," and after reaching her mother's room she kept repeating "No, no; I won't," and while she peremptorily insisted that her mother's body be returned to bed, she remarked that her mother had called to her in her sleep: "Mary, don't let them bury me alive; oh, don't." The undertaker demurringly complied with the daughter's request, saying it was but a dream; but the daughter stoutly claimed the contrary, and would not be denied.

Nearly eight hours passed before Mrs. Crosby slowly opened her eyes and looked at her daughter, who had remained by her bedside, constantly watching for a return of life. The daughter then spoke to her, asking: "Mother, how do you feel?" and the reply came, "Very well, but very weak." After a few moments' silence the mother again spoke, saying, "Mary, I told every one in the room that I was not dead, but they could not hear me. They did not listen like you, my child."

Mrs. Crosby, within twelve hours, was able to sit upright in bed, and she is now considered in a fair way of recovery. She credits her restoration to Mary's prayers, saying that she could hear Mary praying during all the time she lay in a comatose condition, although uttered so silently that no one else heard her. The case has aroused wonderful interest in the neighborhood, even among those who may have a tendency to scoff at the efficacy of prayer.

MORE MONEY IS NEEDED.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Mr. Taylor, assistant secretary of the treasury, in charge of the erection of public buildings, is preparing for transmission to congress a list of authorized public buildings in the United States on which work has been stopped or never begun because of the increase in the price of building materials, and the shortage of appropriations. There are a large number of cities in the United States which have been voted money by congress for public buildings. In many cases the building has never been begun because contractors would not undertake their construction within the appropriations. Sites in many cases have been secured, but there the matter has been held up. Congress will be asked to increase these appropriations so that the projected buildings may be erected as originally intended.

WAR ON FEMALE LABOR.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—The first step in the war to be waged by the organizations of the building material trades council against the employment of women in factories has been taken by C. B. Meyers and Herman Felgenhaur, representing the Metal Polishers' and Buffers' union, the only one in the council whose membership has to compete with women laborers, when they called on the manufacturers and demanded that no more women be employed. One reason given for the war against women labor is the protection of the health of the women. Manufacturers say the work does not injure women's health more than men's, and that precautions are taken to prevent unhealthful conditions. The statement that the women can work for a short time only is denied by the manufacturers.

SPANISH GUNS HERE.

The big Spanish cannon which was presented to Encampment No. 51, Union Veteran Legion, for placing in Old Fort park, in memory of General Anthony Wayne, arrived in the city Monday evening and was placed in the park today. The gun weighs nearly seven tons and it took a large force of men to transport it from the railroad to the park grounds. The gun will be mounted on a stone pedestal and will bear the inscription, "To the Memory of General Anthony Wayne; Erected by Encampment No. 51, Union Veteran Legion." The gun will be dedicated in the summer, at the time of opening the court house or at the national encampment of the Union Veteran Legion, which takes place in the summer. To Capt. Henry Dickman is due the credit of bringing the gun to the city. Captain Dickman wrote to the secretary of the navy, John D. Long, who referred the matter to commander Charles O'Neill, chief of the ordnance bureau. Commander O'Neill selected one of the big guns from the Estrella battery, used in the defense of Santiago, and the gun was removed and shipped to New York on board the steamer Resolute, arriving November 26th, 1899. The gun lay in the navy yard until the official papers for its transfer were made out, when it was shipped to this city.

NOT TO COME HERE.

Congressman James M. Robinson has telegraphed William Geake that he has been advised by the secretary of war that Mrs. Lawton will land at New Orleans with the remains of her husband. Her health is such that the war department has deemed it inadvisable to allow her to make the trip across the continent in the winter months, and it has therefore been decided to land in southern waters, where the climate is much warmer. This means, of course, that the dead general's remains will not lie in state in Fort Wayne. It is probable arrangements will be made to have Fort Wayne represented at the funeral which will occur in Washington. The Lawton fund in this city has reached $150. Capt. W. F. Ranke will receive and forward all donations.

LIBELED IN A SERIAL STORY.

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 16.—Solomon Burkhalter, of this city, has brought suit against W. Bent Wilson, of the Daily Journal, claiming $10,000 damages. There is a serial story running in the Sunday Journal entitled "Oak and Ivy," wherein, as alleged by the complainant, the name of the late Mary Burkhalter is associated in an obnoxious manner with other characters mentioned in the story, thereby casting obloquy on the memory of the dead woman, and on the family name.

OLD PEOPLE MADE YOUNG.

J. C. Sheman, the veteran editor of the Vermontville (Mich.) Echo, has discovered the remarkable secret of keeping old people young. For years he has avoided Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, Heart Trouble, Constipation and Rheumatism by using Electric Bitters, and he writes: "It can't be praised too highly. It gently stimulates the kidneys, tones the stomach, aids digestion and gives a splendid appetite. It has worked wonders for my wife and me. It's a marvelous remedy for old people's complaints." Only 50c at Dreier & Bros.' drug store.

BAS EBALL.

Contracts have been sent to all Fort Wayne players who were not under contract and reserved at the end of last season. "Doggie" Miller has already signed his contract. Charley Babb was not under reserve and it is rumored that he has signed to play in Hartford, Conn., next season. Charley's successes have always been in this city and it is believed that he will again be with the Fort Waynes. Flood may be sent here by the Robisons. Letcher will be signed. Brashbear, Babb and Hollingswerth are spending the winter in this city.

The Fort Wayne contingent will leave at noon, and will be accompanied by delegations from a number of surrounding towns, who join them here. The Bluffton party will be accompanied by a band.

BOUGHT AN AUTOMOBILE.

Dr. J. E. Miller has returned from Chicago, where he purchased an automobile to use in making his professional rounds. The machine is to arrive in the city in about a month and the doctor is promising his friends an automobile party when it comes. The new automobile is enclosed in the same manner as the ordinary carriage for a doctor's use, and it is capable of a speed of over twenty-five miles an hour. It has a five horse-power gasoline engine, which will run 300 miles without recharging. Seven gallons of gasoline are sufficient to keep it going for that distance. The price paid for the vehicle was $2,000. Dr. Miller will have a trailer built to attach to the vehicle, which will be capable of carrying four or six persons. Worth & Donaldson, of Chicago, are the builders of the carriage.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

BOARD OF WORKS TALKS INTERURBAN FRANCHISE.

LAKESIDE STREET RAILWAY

MAY FALL INTO HANDS OF INTERURBAN COMPANY.

SOME OF ANNUAL REPORTS

POLICE MAKE A FINE SHOWING FOR THE YEAR.

William Kaough, William Geake and Louis J. Bobilya, representing the Indiana and Ohio Traction company, held a conference with the board of works in City Engineer Randall's office Monday evening and discussed the proposed inter-urban line from Hicksville, Ohio, to Marion, Ind. The representatives of the company explained to the board that it was imperative for the success of the new road that a separate franchise be secured over the streets of Fort Wayne. The company proposed to erect its power house and make its headquarters in this city and it would be unreasonable for them to expect to secure financial backing unless they could have tracks of their own in Fort Wayne. With their own power they could better handle the cars and it would not be fair to expect them to haul their cars to the city limits with their own power and then buy power to get the cars through the city. It was intimated that the inter-urban company had been assured that the Lakeside street railway on Columbia street could be secured by the consent of the property owners if the board of works would grant a right-of-way through the city. The representatives of the inter-urban line wanted to come into the city through Lakeside and the most plausible route suggested was along Lake avenue to St. Joe boulevard, thence on the boulevard to Columbia street, west on Columbia street to Harrison, south on Harrison to Pearl, west on Pearl to Fairfield avenue, south on Fairfield avenue to Walnut street, west on Walnut to Miner, south on Minor to Grace avenue, west on Grace avenue to Broadway, and thence south on Broadway to the St. Mary's river bridge. It is believed that there would be less objection from property owners along this route than any other. The board looked with favor on the route and the company believes it is the best one that can be suggested. There might be some objection on Lake avenue, but if this materialized, the inter-urban company could probably secure the right-of-way of the present Lakeside line from its eastern terminus as easily as it could from St. Joe boulevard east. If the new company secures the Lakeside line it is almost a certainty that the route suggested above is the one they will be granted.

POLICE WORK FOR YEAR.

During 1899 there were 976 arrests made by the Fort Wayne police department, as against 1,132 in 1898. The number of tramps housed was 906, and 18 persons had been arrested by officers outside of Fort Wayne. The total number of criminals arrested was 56, an increase of 19 over 1898. There had been 27 convictions and 2 acquittals. There were less convictions on account of the fact that many of the persons arrested for felonies were lads of tender age who had been relensed by the mayor on a promis of better behavior, and only a few of these boys was it found necessary to re-arrest. Twenty-four had been released by courts and 3 cases are still pending. The day officers made 383 arrests, the night officers 428 and the Pennsylvania detectives 165. Of these prisoners 136 were married and 818 single, and 405, or almost half, were born Indianians. Ohio had produced 133, Germany 60, Michigan 48, New York 42, Ireland 34 and so on down, some states furnishing only one of the prisoners. The officers had recovered 60 lost children. One hundred and twenty-nine doors were found unlocked, as against 230 in 1898. There was reported stolen property valued at $2,230, and $1,561 of this had been recovered, leaving a balance of $669. In 1898 $4,800 worth of property was stolen and all but $1,600 was recovered. There were 63,495 box calls and 28,540 telephone calls, making a total of 91,-935, more than 10,000 less than in 1898. The patrol wagon had answered 936 calls and traveled 1,041 miles. There were 931 prisoners brought to the station, 477 hauled to jail and 95 sick and wounded taken to their homes or the hospitals. The average weight of the officers when appointed was 185, the average age 38 and the average height 5 feet, 10¼ inches. Superintendent Gorsline will make his annual report to the board of safety this evening.

DR. DRAYER'S REPORT.

For several days Dr. L. F. Drayer, city bacteriologist, has employed an assistant to make up his annual report of vital statistics for the year 1899. There were 604 deaths in the city during the year. Consumption claimed the most victims, 75; pneumonia and other lung troubles, 58; old age, 37; cancer of all organs, 30; paralysis, 20. The balance of the deaths were caused by innumerable other diseases. There were 51 cases of diphtheria and 6 deaths, as against 74 cases and 20 deaths in 1898. In 32 cases of scarlet fever there was 1 death. During the year there were 3 deaths from whooping cough. There were 15 deaths from cholera infantum, as against 31 in 1898. In five years the deaths from this disease have been decreased about 80 per cent., a fact attributable to the purer character of the milk now distributed in the city. For the five years preceding 1899 the average percentage of deaths from cholera infantum was 50. The board of health believe that this shows the beneficial result of milk inspection. March showed the greatest mortality, 67 deaths, and in August there was the least deaths, 37. Only two deaths resulted from appendicitis out of the many cases reported. Out of 184 cases of contagious diseases there were 114 deaths. Of these 75 were from consumption, 12 from typhoid fever, 17 from cerebro-spinal meningitis, 6 from diphtheria, 3 from whooping cough and 1 from scarlet fever. There was not a complete report of births. Dr. Drayer's record shows 590 births reported, 14 less than the deaths. It is believed, however, that this is only about one-half the births in the city. Of those reported there were 302 males and 288 females. The greatest number, 69, were born in September, and the smallest number, 14, in November. The mortality was greatest among infants, 133 of those dying being under one year of age. The smallest percentage, as regards age, was among the very aged, there being only 4 deaths of persons over 90. The next smallest was between 9 and 10 years, the number being 15. Two hundred and twenty-seven of the persons who died were unmarried; 218 married; 72 were widows, and 37 widowers. A noticeable fact is the small percentage of deaths among foreign-born persons. These numbered 148.

The report of the sanitary policemen shows that 3,842 nuisances of all kinds were abated during the year.

CITY ENGINEER'S REPORT.

City Engineer Randall has finished his annual report and it was Monday submitted to the board of works. The Sentinel has heretofore printed the amount of improvements made in 1899 and will only summarize now. There were expended for improvements $144,025.65, an aggregate $16,909.79 greater than was expended in 1898. Of this sum $133,919.51 was expended for new streets. The total length of paved streets is 27.922 miles. Cedar block leads with 10.770 miles; brick follows with 10.335, sheet asphalt is next with 6.570 miles; asphalt block 0.157 miles, and cobble stone 0.080 miles. Alleys to a length of 1,979 feet were paved at a cost of $3,980.88. There are now 2.57 miles of alleys paved in Fort Wayne. Parts of three streets were paved to a length of 2.198 feet at a cost of $365.91. Five alleys were graded under private contract and under public contract there were 1,342 feet of alley grading at a cost of $161.64. One mile of brick sidewalk, laid under public contract, cost $1,515.34, an average cost of 28 cents per lineal foot. Some sidewalks were also built under private contract.

Ten 12 and 15-inch local sewers were constructed, making a total in length of 1.46 miles, the total cost being $4,082.30. There are now in the city 55.81 miles of sewers. One local sewer and one brick sidewalk are the only improvements unfinished. City Engineer Randall has seven sets of plans prepared for improvements to be made this year. The portion of the cost of these improvements assessed against the city was $19,873.20, property owners paying the balance of cost. Seventy-nine sets of plans were prepared, fifteen of them for street improvements. The expenses of the engineer's office were $750.53, most of which sum was to pay for employment of a draughtsman and additional assistant engineer.

There will be much municipal work this year, principal of which will be the intercepting and South Wayne sewers, which will cost about $250,-000. The two sewers will be more than six miles in length and it will require 10,000,000 brick to complete them. The brick will be purchased from Fort Wayne brick makers and this means a great year for that industry in this county. There will be streets paved and innumerable minor improvements.

Besides receiving the report of the city engineer the board approved the bond of John Druker, licensed sewer builder. The board also discussed the matter of temporary disposal of garbage. Work has not yet been commenced on the crematory, and it is impossible to dump garbage on the river near Dan Falls, as has heretofore been done, so it is now being hauled further east.

COUNCIL COMMITTEE ACTS.

The council committee on rules, regulations and ordinances met Monday evening and took action in line with that outlined in The Sentinel. After City Attorney Shambaugh had approved the following resolutions they were unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, In the consideration of the ordinance to revise the schedule of prices charged by the gas company for natural gas, it is necessary that the actual cost of construction of the plant be known, as well as the annual income of the company, and whereas, to know and determine these facts will necessitate an examination of the books, papers and accounts of the Fort Wayne Gas company, as well as those of its assignor, the Salamonie Mining and Gas company, by expert accountants; therefore be it,

"Resolved, That this committee employ the services of Allen H. Dougall, an expert accountant, to act with Henry G. Barghoff, city comptroller, with instructions that they proceed at once to go over the books of said company and report back to this committee without delay the following facts:

"First—The actual amount of money that the Salamonie Mining Gas company and its assignee, the Fort Wayne Gas company, have paid out for gas wells, leases, franchises and gas fields since the grant of the franchise up to January 1, 1900. This finding is to include all wells, leases, franchises and fields that have been and are being used exclusively for supplying gas to Fort Wayne and to exclude all others not so used.

"Second—The actual cash outlay for all main and supply pipes, regulators and pumping stations and all other appurtenances of said plant laid and constructed since November 18, 1888, up to the present time for the exclusive purpose of bringing and distributing to the citizens of Fort Wayne natural gas, under the franchise of November 18, 1888. This finding to include cost of material and labor. It is the desire of the committee that the report show the amount invested annually for such improvements and purposes for the period of time set out.

"Third—The annual operating expenses of the owners of the Fort Wayne plant for the past five years incurred in bringing and distributing natural gas to Fort Wayne, exclusive of construction and interest charges.

"Fourth—The annual gross income of the Fort Wayne Gas company from the sale of natural gas to consumers from the wells, lines and pipes and appurtenances thereto, the construction of which are charged to the Fort Wayne plant. The committee desires such annual income for the three years last past.

OBITUARY.

The funeral service of Mrs. Emily Dix McGaw was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Fahnestock, Rev. P. J. Rice officiating. The scripture read was from the fourteenth chapter of John, and some feeling comments were made in connection with the reading. The parting words of the Master to His disciples were words of comfort. He spoke to them of the home beyond, and cheered them with the promise that they should at last be permitted to enter these. This promise is the only thing that can dispel the gloom which hovers about us at the separation which death involves. It is indeed a glorious hope. In closing, some verses from Ella Wheeler Wilcox were read. They are as follows:

"I never stand about a bier and see
The seal of death set on some sweet loved face
"But that I think, one more to welcome me
When I shall cross the intervening space
Between this land and that one over there;
One more to make the strange beyond seem fair.
"And to me there is no sting to death.
And so the grave has lost its victory;
It is but crossing with abated breath,
And white set face, a little strip of sea,
To find my loved ones waiting on the shore,
More beautiful, more precious, than before."

Mrs. Emily Dix McGaw was born November 29, 1823, in Harrison county, Ohio. She was married in 1841 to Dr. Thomas N. McGaw. There were born to them eight children, of whom two sons and five daughters are still living, the husband and one daughter, Mrs. J. B. Endley, having preceded her. Mrs. McGaw had been an invalid for the past twenty years and had always borne her illness and suffering with the patience and fortitude of a true Christian, having united with the M. E. church in her early girlhood. She was a sweet, patient and loving mother and in her declining years was cared for and treasured like a precious flower. There were present at the funeral all the children and grandchildren and she was carried to her last rest by her two sons and four grandsons.

A GREAT RECORD.

Hard to Duplicate It in Fort Wayne.

Scores of representative citizens of Fort Wayne are testifying on the following subject. Such a record of local endorsement is unequaled in modern times. This public statement made by a citizen is but one of the many that have preceded it and the hundreds that will follow. Read it:

Mr. A. Elbett, of 62 Summit street, who conducts a repair shop at the above address, says: "I had kidney complaint for several years and on one occasion was laid up for eight weeks. My doctor thought I had Bright's disease, but none of the medicine I took did me much good. I had about lost all hope of ever getting well when I happened to read about Doan's Kidney Pills, and though I did not have much faith in their doing me good, yet I was willing to give anything a trial that had helped others, so I went to Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store and got a box. As soon as I began using them the pains in my back started to grow less, the kidney secretions began to clear and take on a natural color, instead of being brickish red. By the time I had taken three-fourths of the box I was cured."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all druggists, price 50 cents per box.

LAW IS DEFECTIVE

INTER-STATE COMMERCE ACT NEEDS STRENGTHENING.

THE COMMISSION'S REPORT

RECOMMEND A REVISION OF THE LAW.

CAUSALITY LIST DECREASES

THE IMPROVEMENT IS DUE TO SAFETY APPLIANCES.

The inter-state commerce commission has made public its thirteenth annual report. The feature of the report is the strong plea made that congress uphold the hands of the commission by amendments making the inter-state commerce law more effective. The report says that the commission a year ago called attention to the fact that in vital respects the present law has proved defective and inadequate and that until further legislation is provided the best efforts at regulation must be feeble and disappointing. The requests of the commission for needful amendments have been supported by petitions and memorials from agricultural, manufacturing and commercial interests throughout the country; yet, says the report, not a line of the statute has been changed and none of the burdensome conditions which call for relief have been removed or modified. The existing situation and the developments of the past year, it is added, make the law more inoperative than ever before, and increase the necessity for speedy and suitable legislation. Nine-tenths of the people know that any railroad company can charge for its service whatever it pleases and as much as it pleases, without any real power in this commission or any other tribunal, or court, to limit the amount of such charge for the future when complaint is made by an aggrieved shipper, and they are substantially of one mind in desiring that this and other defects in the statute be promptly remedied. Shippers generally also have been practically unanimous in favor of a single classification of freights, one that will be uniform for all roads, and all sections of the country, and reasonably stable when established. This general public dissatisfaction has been frequently expressed in resolutions of various national organizations and at a conference in Chicago last November, attended by representatives from a number of national associations of manufacturers, merchants and others, a bill embracing the more important amendments recommended by the commission was approved as the measure which would best meet the requirements of business and commercial interests. This bill Senator Cullom has introduced and the report significantly suggests whether continued failure to perfect the regulating statute on reasonable lines will not soon result in an irresistible demand for the most radical and drastic legislation.

Continuing it adds: "It is a matter of common knowledge that vast schemes of railway control are now in process of consumption, and that the competition of rival lines is to be restrained by these combinations. While this movement has not yet found full expression in the actual consolidation of railroad corporations, enough has transpired to disclose a unification of financial interests, which will dominate the management and harmonize the operations of lines heretofore independent and competitive. This is today the most noticeable and important feature of the railway situation. If the plans already foreshadowed are brought to effect results, and others of similar scope are carried to execution, there will be a vast centralization of railroad properties, with all the power involved in such far-reaching combinations, yet uncontrolled by any public authority which can be efficiently executed. The restraints of competition upon excessive and unjust rates will in this way be avoided, and whatever evils may result will be remediless under existing laws."

"The increase in railroad business the past year has been so great," the report says, "that many carriers found their equipment inadequate for the service required. Revenues increased greatly, while railway failures fell off. The rush of business contributed to the improved observance of published rates and diminished the frequency of those practices which are made criminal misdemeanors by the statutes. Coincident with these schemes of unified control, and while this exceptional movement of traffic continues, the carriers operating through an extensive and important territory have recently made substantial, and in many cases, very large increases in their scale of charges. These advances in rates have been mainly affected by concerted and agreed changes in the classification of freight articles. It is not intended to intimate that these advanced rates are unlawful and no opinion is expressed as to their actual or relative reasonableness. But the fact that such extensive increases in railroad charges have been brought about by the method described must be of significant import and furnish a weighty argument in favor of measures which will be effective to secure compliance with the primary requirements of the act."

These changes were made without hearing and against protests of shippers, and whatever may be the merits of the complaints the report urges that the law ought to be so amended as to insure a determination whether the rates are just and reasonable and redress if they are found unjust.

During the year 1899 there were 190 employes killed and 5,339 injured upon eighty-nine roads, against 209 killed and 5,484 injured in 1898, a result attributed to the more general equipment of the roads with safety appliances.

BEECHAM'S PILLS Improve the general health. 10 cents & 25 cents.

MR. ELLENWOOD SICK.

The aged Hiram Ellenwood is lying in a critical condition at his home near Williamsport, being afflicted with dropsy and heart disease. The sick man is the father of Passenger Conductor Cliff Ellenwood and Engineer Rodney Ellenwood, of the Pittsburg road. Years ago the senior Ellenwood was employed as engineer on the Pittsburg and was then one of the best known locomotive engineers in this part of the state.

BOWSER MEN'S MEETING.

The annual meeting of the traveling salesmen and agents of S. F. Bowser & Co. will commence tomorrow and last three days. The meetings will be held at the works, on East Creighton avenue, and they will be of a character instructive to the salesmen on matters pertaining to their calling. Mr. Bowser will deliver the opening address tomorrow morning and Rosser McClure will respond on behalf of the guests. Then will come a personal inspection of samples, which will close the morning session. In the afternoon demonstrations of how to conduct a sale will be given, preceded by addresses by Messrs. Allen Bowser, E. M. Savercool, J. W. Runyan, H. S. Covey, D. H. Shields, C. E. Neff, H. T. Purdy, J. W. Ware, E. F. Beatty, C. O. Wiggins and J. N. Deitsch. The banquet will be given Thursday evening at the New Aveline. There will be over fifty plates.

A CALLER INJURED.

John Frase, caller of Nickel Plate engine crews, fell on the streets last evening and severely sprained his back. He will be unable to attend to his railway duties for a few days at least. The young man is a brother to Engineer Wash Frase, of the Nickel Plate.

MUST ELEVATE TRACKS.

Last night the city council of Chicago ordered that every train or locomotive on the Fort Wayne road shall come to a dead stop within 100 feet of every street car crossing and there await signal from the flagman at the crossing before it will be permitted to proceed. There are seven grade crossings affected by this order and to stop at each and be at the mercy of a crossing watchman is a serious matter. This order was issued because the Fort Wayne line has not been elevated in accordance with the Chicago ordinance. There are seven other roads using this piece of track, but the official order is not to interfere with any but the trains of the Pennsylvania company. The territory affected by the order lies between Twenty-second and Forty-seventh streets.

WILL SPEND MILLIONS.

Plans for the expenditure of $25,000,000 in improving the physical condition of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad have been completed and within the next three years that vast amount of money will have been expended. The net earnings of the road the last half of the year 1899 show an increase of $2,294,805 over the same period of 1898. At this rate of earning the directors are led to the belief that a large percentage of the $25,000,000 can be spared from surplus earnings. Although the detailed plans of improvement have not been made public yet, it is said that a great percentage of the money will be spent in improving the line between Chicago and Pittsburg.

BIG RUSH OF FREIGHT.

If the present volume of business on the Nickel Plate is maintained throughout the week, the tonnage carried during that period will approach very close to that of the record-breaking week, if indeed it does not surpass it. Yesterday there was great difficulty in getting power and engine crews sufficient to handle the business. Every engine that could pull a car was in service and every car that could carry a load of merchandise or grain was moving.

TWO PROMOTIONS.

Fred Passino has been called from the Pennsylvania store room to a clerical position in Superintendent of Motive Power D. F. Crawford's office, which is a well merited promotion. The vacated position in the store house has been filled by Emmett C. Gordon, who is transferred from the machine shop. This also is a merited promotion. Young Gordon is a son of Hugh Gordon, of the baggage department.

WILL SEND THEM TO BRICE LINES.

The Lake Shore has found a place for some of its engines which are too good for the "scrap heap" and too light for service on that line. They will be sent to the Lake Erie and Western, where they will be quite an improvement over the antiquated and dilapidated machines which have did service for a quarter of a century, with little or no repairs. The reader will remember that the Lake Erie and Western is now a Vanderbilt property, the same as the Lake Shore.

EQUIPPING BIG PLANT.

Yesterday the machinery and equipment for a big electric plant left the Fort Wayne electric works for the Walker & Kepler company. In the shipment were five dynamos, one of 750-light capacity and the others of 120-light capacity each. Electricians will leave tomorrow to install the plant.

GET ANNUAL PASSES NOW.

The Nickel Plate has adopted a new rule concerning transportation for its conductors and engineers. It was the former practice for these gentlemen to apply to the division officials for transportation whenever it was desired to pass over the road on other than railway business. Now they have annual passes good over the entire western division and can go where and when they please without waiting a day or two for a pass.

REDUCED INITIATION FEE.

Fort Wayne lodge, No. 130, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, will make a special effort to increase its membership the coming seven or eight weeks and will take in applicants in classes. As an extra inducement to join the order the lodge has temporarily reduced the initiation fee from $6.50 to $3.50. This order remains good until March 1, when the fee will be restored to original figures.

CAR SERVICE AGENT.

Manager Bacon, of the Indiana Car Service association, will place H. M. Elliott, of Indianapolis, in charge of affairs in this city and the new agent will soon arrive here to assume the duties of the office. It is understood that the position had been tendered to Mr. Archibald, of this city, who was for a number of years employed in the Wabash freight office and later in Supt. E. A. Gould's office, at Peru, but that gentleman was offered and accepted a position at Delray, Mich., and, of course, was unavailable for the agency. Mr. Elliott is said to be an experienced freight man, though he is not known here.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

A. D. Gressles is west in the interest of the Kerr Murray works.

John W. Hall, of the electric works, shiping department, is confined at home by sickness.

Within the next sixty days the Baltimore and Ohio will receive sixty-five new locomotives.

Paul Zur Muhlen, of the Wabash machine shop, is working again after an illness of a few days.

William Hamilton, of the Bass blacksmith shop, is off duty on account of the illness of his wife.

Nickel Plate Engineer John Bottger, who had been on the sick list a week, reported for work yesterday.

Stewart Rehrer, an armature winder at the electric works, is detained at home by the illness of his wife.

The iron for the cinder pit at the Pittsburg yards arrived this morning and the work of construction will soon be completed.

James Brunskill, boilermaker at the Pittsburg shops, has returned to work, after a week's absence on account of an injured foot.

William J. Knepper, a truckman at the Nickel Plate freight house, was struck on the leg by a heavy box Monday afternoon and the limb was fractured. He was removed to his home on St. Mary's avenue in the ambulance.

Train Dispatcher Tharp, of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton, is dangerously ill at his home at Lima, Ohio.

On account of the sickness of his little son, Nickel Plate Conductor William Watterson has been off duty for two or three days.

After a sickness which kept him at home two weeks, William Schamm this morning resumed his work in the Bass blacksmith shop.

Nickel Plate Conductor P. J. Devitt has returned from a visit out of the city and last night reported for duty on the road. He was away a week.

Conductor Epps and Brakemen L. P. Stone, F. E. Todd and J. H. Kepler have resumed their duties on the Nickel Plate after an absence for various reasons.

Cyrus E. Miller, a carpenter who has been sick for two months, has recovered and this morning he reported for duty in the bridge gang of the Pittsburg.

Grand Rapids and Indiana and Lake Shore trains from the north today are covered with snow, indicating that a big storm raged in Michigan and northern Indiana.

Ed Lindsey, a machinist who began work at the Bass shops two or three weeks ago, quit that establishment last night. It is understood he has another position in view.

Theodore F. Thieme, manager of the Wayne Knitting mills, has returned from a very successful business trip to New York. The company's greatest patron is the Empire City.

One of the steam hammers in the Bass shops broke its piston rod this morning and William Lehnkuhler and his half-dozen 'smithies were temporarily put at other work in the shop.

George W. Kirby, agent of the Pennsylvania at Wilmore, who is retired under the pension fund, is eighty-six years of age, and had served the company [illegible] forty-four years.

The illness of Cashier Jay McCracken has developed into pneumonia, though indications are favorable to a light attack. The popular cashier's many friends will regret to hear of his misfortune.

Engineers M. F. McCarthy, George Chartier and Al Baer and Firemen J. Godfrey and H. Smith, of the Nickel Plate, have taken a short lay off for the purpose of resting. They have been worked very hard lately.

Valparaiso Sun: "The run of the Valparaiso accommodation on the Fort Wayne road will be changed next Sunday so as to run from Plymouth to Chicago, instead of this city. By the change Valpo will lose six families."

Brakeman James Hamilton, of the Nickel Plate, who was a member of Conductor Bowman's crew, has been transferred to the crew of Conductor Hibinger, and F. E. Todd, an extra man, has taken the place in Mr. Bowman's crew.

With the retirement of George W. Hall from active service under the pension fund of the Pennsylvania as conveyancer the office is abolished and the office of real estate agent created. B. W. Carskaddon has been appointed to the position.

It is stated that twenty or more of the best engineers on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul have proposed to J. N. Barr, the new superintendent of motive power on the Baltimore and Ohio, who on January 1 left the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul to follow him to the Baltimore and Ohio.

New names on the Pittsburg absentee list this morning were Engineer William Doty, Shopmen F. W. Mennewisch, E. F. Turner, J. J. Buegnot, Martin Sorg, William Dryer, A. Girard, C. P. Brown, Jude Henry, J. McCarty, Jacob Waldschmidt, J. Haslup, H. Burlage, A. J. Huber, J. H. Cody, W. Fetters, J. Laughlin and J. Daily. The latter seven named are off to attend the funeral of Bishop Rademacher and the others are either sick or off to attend to some private business.

Al Ferriter and Charlie Nolan, machinists at the Pittsburg shops, were callers at the Wabash shops yesterday, comparing notes with the mechanics there. Such visits always result in mutual benefit to guest and host, as an interchange of ideas leads to improved methods of doing work.

Traveling freight agents of western railroads to the number of 150 or 200 will meet in convention in Rockford, Ill., January 27, and after the business sessions will have a banquet. Rockford manufacturers will take this occasion to present grievances as to discrimination in freight rates.

The Erie Railway company has adopted a new plan with reference to giving letters of discharge. Hereafter, an employe quitting the service of the company will be presented with a personal letter of recommendation, and the former method of addressing letters to other roads will be abandoned.

Martin Milot, who has charge of the electric light plant at Decatur, Ind., was at the head of a party of gentlemen from that city who paid the electric works a visit this morning. They were shown every courtesy out there and were well pleased with the visit. Mr. Milot formerly worked in that establishment.

Through the change made on the Vanderbilt lines one of the officers has now become a director and official in twenty-seven different Vanderbilt corporations. He takes the place of twenty-six other men, who were filling offices in these corporations, without much additional increase in his salary, which is quite a saving.

Plans for a fine new depot at Elkhart are being prepared in the office of the chief engineer of the Lake Shore at Cleveland, and, though there has been no official announcement, it is believed the improvement will be made this year. The plans are said to be copied largely after those of the same company's station at Toledo, though, of course, the Elkhart building will not be so large.

The Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville railway (the Monon route) has put in service a handsome new day train between Chicago and Cincinnati. The train consists of a baggage and express car, a smoking car, handsomely upholstered in leather, a day coach with unusually high-back seats, and a combined parlor observation and cafe car, conveniently arranged and handsomely fitted in every detail. Each car is provided with complete toilet arrangements, including lavatory, etc. A feature of special interest is the fact that the train was built throughout at the company's shops at Lafayette, Ind.

CAN THE CITY AFFORD IT?

Since the death of Major General Henry W. Lawton Fort Wayne has been extensively advertised as the home of that illustrious soldier and hero. Up to this date there has been raised by subscription in Fort Wayne the sum of $150 as the contribution of the late general's home city for the relief of his wife and children, who were left in circumstances that cried for relief from a grateful nation. Is it not a shame to talk of monuments and memorials while we are so remiss in solicitude for the welfare of those most dear to General Lawton while he lived? Can Fort Wayne afford to be the target for the jibing and jeering this callous and ungenerous behavior is bound to elicit wherever it shall become known? Can the business men of Fort Wayne afford to have their city rise to such an unenviable repute? What has been done? If we are to brazenly face such an unhappy comment as will be made of us, let us be honest about it and have the mayor at once telegraph General Corbin that General Lawton's old home will give General Lawton's widow and fatherless children nothing. If it is not to be thus, then let contributions come generously forth while there is yet time.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Lower Liverpool cables were again in favor in the wheat market today, May opening ½@¾c under yesterday at 68⅜@68½c. New York and foreigners were sellers early and some wheat came out on stop orders. Trade was quiet, but at the low price the demand from shorts was good. This, combined with buying against puts, steadied the market and caused a rally in May to 66⅝@66¾c. The cash and export demand was slow. Receipts here were 35 cars, none of which were of graded contract. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 296 cars, against 365 last week and 483 a year ago.

Corn was a shade easier with wheat at the opening, but turned strong on light country offerings, smaller receipts and steady cables. Trade was dull. Local receipts were 491 cars. May opened unchanged at 33⅓c and advanced to 33⅝@33¾c.

The oats market was dull and featureless, but steady. Receipts here were 316 cars. May opened unchanged at 23⅜c and sold to 24c.

Receipts of hogs over the estimate and weaker prices at the yards caused a shade loss in the provisions market at the opening, but after a good demand the tone was steady at the decline. May pork opened 7½c down at $11.05@11.07½; May lard 5@7½c lower at $6.07½@6.10, and May ribs 5c under yesterday at $5.82½@5.85.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—Jan., 62⅛c; May, 65¼@65⅜c; July, 66c.

Corn—Jan., 31c; May, 32@32⅜c; July, 34c.

Oats—Jan., 22½c; May, 23⅞c; July, 23½c.

Pork—Jan., $10.70; May, $10.95; July, $11.05.

Lard—Jan., $5.87½; May, $6.02½; July, $6.10.

Ribs—Jan., $5.70; May, $5.80.

Hogs—Receipts today, 40,000; tomorrow, 40,000; left over, 3,000. Heavy 5c lower; light 10c lower. Mixed and butchers, $4.40@4.70; good to choice heavy, $4.55@4.70; rough heavy, $4.40@4.50; light, $4.35@4.57½; bulk of sales, $4.50@4.65.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Jan. 16.—Opening dealings were so small as to give no very positive tone to the market. In the prominent stocks changes were confined to fractions and mostly on the side of losses. New York Air Brake dropped 3¼. Manhattan and Metropolitan yielded 1 and 1½ under bear pressure, but other stocks held well. When pressure was relaxed Metropolitan rallied a point above last night and Sugar, Manhattan, Brooklyn Transit and Tobacco rose strongly. Business was smaller than for months and dealings were entirely professional.

Prices of leading stocks tended upward, but the movement in Metropolitan was very erratic. A range of several points was covered frequently. The top price was reached at midday.

The bond market was held firm and was relatively more active than stocks.

NEW YORK PRODUCE.

New York, Jan. 16.—Butter—Receipts, 749 pkgs; market unsettled. June creamery, 20@23½c; western creamery, 21@25c; factory, 17@22c.

Eggs—Receipts, 11,101 pkgs; market barely steady; western, 20c, loss off; western ungraded at mark, 14@18c.

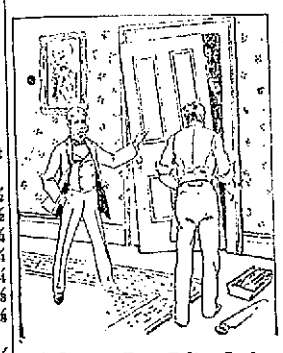
SUCH A DISASTER



Can enter your home at any time. It wouldn't do to put in inferior fittings and fixtures. Sooner or later—generally sooner—you'll regret not getting first-class materials. You don't want doors to sag, knobs to come off, windows to fall down and glass that will break if you look at it. Buy your fixtures and pay a reasonable price for them; they are the cheapest in the end. Among the items of repair that may be needed in your house every day, we might mention Locks and Knobs in all styles, Strap and Door Hinges, Wire Coat and Hat Hooks, Glass, Nails and Screws, Door Bolts, Cupboard Catches and Drawer Pulls, as well as a Padlock to lock your woodshed and thereby prevent anyone from borrowing your woodsaw and sawbuck—that is, provided you are fortunate enough to possess one. We sell them, as well as Hammers, Hand Saws, Planes and other tools needed in doing odd jobs about the place.
